

Lakenheath Middle School Student Bulletin

Friday, January 9, 2009

At Lakenheath Middle School we are working on problem solving and improving written communication. All students should be able to identify the real problem and locate information to solve it. To communicate more clearly when writing, students should be able to organize their ideas well.

- ❑ Time for the end-of-semester Reading Counts celebration. Mark your calendars for January 22 for a fun seminar where we will enjoy a Pub Quiz with pub grub and lots of prizes. Get your teams together and reserve a table in the library. See you there -- must have your Reading Count's pass to attend.
