

Hurricanes

Instructions:

1. Individually read the Recommended Websites and take notes about hurricanes, more specifically about what causes them and what their characteristics are.
2. Work with your partner to create and write a weather report that could have been used to warn Moss Gown of the dangers and characteristics of a hurricane.
3. Together you and your partner will share your special breaking weather forecast with the class.

Recommended Websites:

- FEMA for Kids: Hurricanes
(www.fema.gov/kids/hurr.htm)
- Hurricanes: How They Work and What They Do
(<http://kids.earth.nasa.gov/archive/hurricane/index.html>)
- Kidstorm: Hurricanes
(<http://skydiary.com/kids/hurricanes.html>)
- Hurricane Awareness for Kids
(<http://www.nhc.noaa.gov/HAW2/english/kids.shtml>)